

Port Huron, MI

The Area

Tied closely with auto industry for many years, Port Huron is in the midst of new beginnings with businesses arriving and with the hopes of expanding tourism.

In a well-established community like Port Huron, the average age of houses within the city limits is 100 years old which means there is significant improvement to be done in order to keep the tides turning the right way for new commerce and growth.

Our Partner

Keller Williams is a local real estate company that is committed to making Port Huron the best place it can be for residents. They host monthly food service, volunteer in the local schools, sponsors families during the holiday season, and host an annual flower sale to help raise funds for their local teachers to attend a Group Mission Trips Workcamp.

Lodging Information

Participants will stay in a facility that is *fully air-conditioned and has indoor, open showers. Everyone will be sleeping on floors, gender-separate, so bring your air mattresses!

Subject to change.*

The Need

You will be providing exterior painting for residents and building porches.

Area Activities

Located just over Blue Water bridge from Canada, Port Huron is a destination know for Lake Huron which is a freshwater lake with beautiful beaches and fun water activities. If you're looking for more heart pumping fun, Saw Mill City is a recreation area with go-carts, mini-golf, water slides and bumper boats.

The village of Lexington is just north of Port Huron has amazing beaches, shopping, restaurants and bowling alleys for a day of fun.

