

Indianapolis, IN

The Area

The city of Indianapolis, affectionately called “Indy”, is a capital known for its sports and racing. It is home to the two largest single-day sporting events in the world: The Indianapolis 500 and the NASCAR 400.

We are looking forward to another awesome summer serving in Indy. We partner with a local church and they graciously provide us a home base and lodging facility.

Our Partners

We have a Local Coordinator that who maintains connections throughout the year with the partner organizations we serve so that our service and relationships are sustainable. She lives in the area and, when she isn't working, you will see her around the camp.

We serve in a variety of ways ,including participating in inner city children's programs, sorting and serving food, completing home projects for the elderly, and being a part of an exciting community outreach at a local church.

Lodging

We are grateful to be staying at a beautiful local church. Males and females will be on separate floors of the building for sleeping, both of which have air conditioning.

The church does not have showers, so we set up shower tents right outside the facility. The church is locked each night by staff members.

Amenities and Fun Stuff

Resources nearby include Walmart Supercenter, Dollar Center, Starbucks and many restaurants including Italian food, burgers, pizza and a diner with a soda fountain!

Indy might be the “Racing Capital of the World” and home to many sports, but it has so much more to offer. North America's largest water clock is located in Indy, and you don't want to miss the Canal Walk or the Zoo.

You can explore the many cultural districts in Indy including theater, outdoors, jazz, entertainment and shopping. The Wholesale District contains Circle Centre Mall with many great restaurants including PF Changs, Chick-fil-A, and A&W.

You might also consider taking your group to experience a team building adventure at The Escape Room <https://escaperoomindy.com/>. Once your group has escaped, go downstairs to The Old Spaghetti Factory and have dinner!
