

Chattanooga, TN

The Area

Chattanooga, Tennessee is a city rich in history, natural beauty, and bustling activity. Located in southeastern Tennessee right along the Tennessee River and the Georgia border, this city has a definitive Southern flavor. You'll find many attractions and museums in the city as well as gorgeous landscape. The city is surrounded by ridges and lies at the transition between the ridge and valley of the Appalachian Mountains and the Cumberland Plateau.

This is Chattanooga's second Workcamp with Group Mission Trips and the city has big plans for camp! Many small homes owned by long term residents are still in need of paint, access via ramps, and porch repairs, which will allow folks to enjoy their home safely.

Our Partner

We partner alongside the City of Chattanooga which is located in the heart of downtown. As the anchor of Chattanooga, increasing home repair and bettering neighborhoods is a prominent goal. This year, the cosponsor team is prepared to help more residents and make a bigger impact on homeowners through Workcamp home repair, volunteers, and service hours!

Lodging Information

Participants will stay in a facility with full air conditioning and indoor, open, showers. Bring your swimsuits if you're worried about modesty! Everyone will be sleeping on floors, gender-separate, so bring your air-mattresses too. Subject to change.

The Need

Chattanooga, like many communities, is primed for a makeover. Many small homes owned by long-term residents need fresh paint, porch repairs, and access via ramps so that residents can enjoy their home safely.

Area Activities

The Lookout Mountain Attractions include three top rated, world-famous natural attractions that showcase the natural beauty of Lookout Mountain and views of the Chattanooga Valley.

While there, you can tour Ruby Falls, America's deepest cave and largest underground waterfall accessible to the public, and ride the Incline Railway, the world's steepest passenger railway. Also unique to this location are the cave tours at Raccoon Mountain.

When you need to satisfy your sweet tooth, don't forget to check out the Chattanooga Bakery, home of the South's most famous of snacks, Moon Pies!
