Millersville, MD

"Chesapeake Bay Workcamp"

The Area

Bordering the Chesapeake Bay, Millersville sits about 15 miles from Baltimore and Annapolis (the state capital), and 25 miles from Washington DC! Millersville has a diverse population of half a million residents which include retired veterans, retired federal government workers, retired auto and steel workers, and young families employed by the tech industries.

You'll be amazed at the rich and diverse history of this area—Baltimore is the birthplace of our National Anthem; Annapolis is home of the US Naval Academy, and Washington DC displays its roots with memorials and museums that mark milestones in history.

Join us for a week of home repairs and heart-filled service!

Our Partner

As long-time participants and staff of Group Mission Trips, our partner is a pillar in Millersville. They serve year-round by feeding the hungry, ministering to the homeless, mentoring and tutoring the young, and supporting community projects. With their experience and involvement in the community, they can guarantee an awesome Workcamps experience!

Lodging Information

Participants will be staying in a facility that is *fully air-conditioned. Everyone will be sleeping on floors, gender-separate, so bring your air-mattresses! The facility doesn't have showers so we'll either build enclosed showers outside, or rent private shower trailers, per gender. If you're worried about modesty, bring your swimsuit. It's a good idea to also bring shower shoes. *Subject to change.

The Need

At the Millersville, MD Workcamp, your group will demonstrate Jesus' love and compassion in tangible ways, serving real people in need while working on projects like...

- Building wheelchair ramps and handrails
- Weatherizing homes and trailers
- Reconstructing sagging porches
- Significant painting projects
- Interior and exterior carpentry
- Other home repair projects that the homeowner cannot otherwise complete

Area Activities

There's a Six Flags in Upper Malboro, MD and tons of fun things to do in Baltimore!